MIDWEEK FILLUP | The Study of Acts Chapter 18

PAUL IN CORINTH (18:1-11):

- After leaving Athens, Paul went to Corinth and Timothy and Silas met him there.
- He met a couple named Aquila and Priscilla and worked with them as a tentmaker.
- He taught in the synagogue every Sabbath.
- The Jews rejected his message, so he turned his attention to the Gentiles.
- Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, and many Corinthians believed and were baptized.
- God appeared to Paul in a vision and told him to continue preaching in Corinth.
- He remained in the city for a year and six months.

GALLIO DISMISSES THE TROUBLESOME JEWS (18:12-17):

- When Gallio was the proconsul of Achaia, the Jews brought Paul to him and accused Paul of “persuading people to worship God contrary to the law.”
- Gallio didn’t care about Jewish religious disputes, so he refused to hear their case.

PAUL SAILS HOME TO ANTIOCH IN SYRIA (18:18-22):

- Paul set sail for Antioch and was joined by Aquila and Priscilla.
- When they stopped in Ephesus, Paul went into the synagogue and taught.
- The Jews asked him to stay longer, but he had to decline.
- His ship sailed to Caesarea, where he disembarked and continued to Antioch.

PAUL EMBARKS ON ANOTHER MISSIONARY JOURNEY (18:23):

- After spending “some time” in Antioch, Paul set out again to visit the disciples in Galatia and Phrygia.

AQUILA AND PRISCILLA MEET APOLLOS (18:24-28):

- In Ephesus, there was a man named Apollos who is described as an “eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures.”
- He taught about Jesus but didn’t have a complete understanding of Jesus’ message.

- Aquila and Priscilla pulled him aside and “explained to him the way of God more accurately.”
- Afterwards, he “powerfully refuted the Jews” and used the Scriptures to prove Jesus was the Christ.
