

HE'S WORKING IT OUT

Romans 8:28 says, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Words of declaration are extremely important in the life of every believer. In all of our lives we encounter burdens and hardships but it is not so much about trying to escape the trouble that is assigned to us it is more about how we will handle those things that are thrown our way. If we are going to experience the blessings that God has for us, we must also take on the burdens that mold and shape us into the individuals that we are called to be.

As Paul wrote to the church at Rome, he encouraged them that no matter what their plight was, God still has a master plan of working things out. Andre Crouch once penned these words, "If I never had a problem, I wouldn't know that God could solve them, I wouldn't know what faith in God could do. Through it all I've learned to trust in Jesus, I've learned to trust in God..."

The great thing about being a believer is that you can find peace and solace in knowing that God works things out for our good even when they don't appear to look good. Each of us has a calling and purpose for our lives and many of the trials that we face lead us to a greater destiny.

Sometimes God has to use ugly situations to bring about a beautiful outcome. So the next time you find yourself questioning God about what He is doing in your life, just remind yourself, "He's Working It Out!"

PRAYER: Dear God, teach me how to trust your will even when I can't understand it and help me to remember that you are working things out for my good.

AFFIRMATION: I will hold my head high because I know everything is going to work out.

REFLECT & RESPOND

Teach me how to trust your will even when I can't understand it.